

Jane Ginn, MSIA, MRP

SENIOR CYBER SECURITY THREAT INTELLIGENCE ANALYST

Professional who develops innovative approaches to solving information assurance problems for global businesses. Proven educator/trainer with over 12 years of training and education experience. Team player with strong communication skills who understands how to translate highly technical jargon into concepts understandable by non-technical people.

- ✓ CyBOX/STIX/TAXII
- ✓ VERIS – ThreatConnect - OpenIOC
- ✓ Cyber Security Intelligence Tracking
- ✓ Regulatory Compliance Planning/Auditing
- ✓ Cyber Security Training
- ✓ Business Intelligence/Analytics/Big Data
- ✓ Market Analysis
- ✓ Information Assurance Policy Design

Career Highlights

SedonaCyberLink (d.b.a.) for Offshore I.T. Services, LLC 2005-Present

Managing Director

- Deliver consulting, training and information assurance services
- Maintain new-media news/blog publishing on cyber security Issues
- Speak at conferences on strategic approaches to eCommerce & security

University of Phoenix 2003 – 2012

Faculty, Certified Advanced Facilitator

- Taught courses in business management & information systems and technology

CG Maersk, USA 2002 – 2003

General Manager, West Coast Operations

- Performed business development for global design team based in Chennai, India
- Formed strategic alliances for global delivery of IT services/software engineering
- Negotiated terms and conditions for global delivery infrastructure

Max Foundation 2000 – 2002

Director of Operations

- Set-up/administered human resources unit for global delivery of cancer care program
- Oversaw software engineering design of platform for working with oncologists

US/Mexico Chamber of Commerce, N.W. Chapter 1998 – 1999

Executive Director

- Set-up/administered N.W. Chapter in Seattle, WA
- Liaison officer during World Trade Organization meetings in Seattle
- Advance planning and trade mission support for Gov. Locke Mexico trade mission

Ginn & Associates

1993 – 1998

Consultant

- Served on Federal Advisory Board (ETTAC) on international trade [Federal Advisory Board Clearance]
- Provided international trade analysis and facilitation for multiple private clients
- Conducted in-country business competitive research and analysis
- Supported build-out of international capital investment projects
- Frequent speaker at national and international conferences and universities
- Supported due diligence activities for private acquisition
- Hosted multiple trade delegations from Asia and Latin America
- Provided training services for U.S. AID projects
- Taught courses at North Seattle Community College

Hart Crowser

1990 – 1993

Project Manager

- Provided air quality auditing support at US DOE's Hanford site
- Managed regulatory compliance task for high level tanks pilot project at Hanford
- Managed field investigation teams for assessing environmental risks at properties for a major Pacific Northwest regional bank

Ebasco Environmental

1988 – 1990

Regulatory Analyst

- Worked on multiple hazardous, radioactive and mixed waste task under a general services delivery contract at DOE's Hanford site
- Provided Environmental Impact Statement support for NASA Solid Rocket Booster

NUS

1984 – 1988

Regulatory Analyst

- Developed database for groundwater and monitoring wells at DOE's Savannah River Plant [Q-Clearance]
- Provided regulatory analysis (NRC, EPA) on high-level nuclear repository project
- Managed regulatory development task for EPA's hazardous waste management program (40 CFR 264 revisions)
- Conducted audits of state regulatory programs for managing hazardous waste as member of EPA audit team

Education

- Master of Science in Information Assurance, Norwich, Northfield, VT - 2013
- Master of Regional Planning (MRP), Washington State, Pullman, WA – 1988
- Applied Information Technology (AIT) Certification, ITI, Bellevue, WA – 2001
- Bachelor of Arts (BA), Geography, U. of Oklahoma, Norman, OK - 1981